exporters for alleged violation of goods and services tax (GST) with its finance counterpart, an official said.

The commerce ministry has stated that the "overzealous revenue collection" move by DRI (Directorate of Revenue Intelligence) was against exporters.

The ministry has demanded integrated goods and services tax (IGST) exemption for inputs used in exports between October 2017 and January 2019, the official said.

In a letter to the Department of Revenue, the commerce ministry said that the demand of giving retrospective IGST exemption to exporters could be taken up by the GST Council, chaired by the finance minister and comprising state ministers.

"This department is of the view that enthusiasm of exporters should not be killed by overzealous revenue collection based on technicali-
